The Necromancer is a mage with the strongest summoning abilities. Unlike the Sorceress with her powerful elemental skills, the Necromancer's killing power comes through indirect means; he uses the demons' strengths against them, relying on his powerful minions and Curses to control the battlefield.. The necromancer represents mastery of the 'dark arts'; his specialities are resurrecting fallen ...

All three Necromancer curses — Decrepify, Leech and Frailty — have their situational use in the Necromancer arsenal. Decrepify is a protective and utility-driven Curse, with a highlight rune in the form of Borrowed Time, which shaves extra seconds off your vital Land of the Dead cooldown. Leech is highly situational, but sees occasional use in Thorns Necromancer builds, as they hurt for ...

One of the Necromancer's three skill trees, Curses debilitate enemies in various ways. The Necromancer's curses can do everything from blinding foes to having them attack each other and more, though none of them do direct damage. Unlike most skills, curses do not receive synergies. While none of the curses directly damage enemies, they are all detrimental to enemies in some way. Some, such as ...
