There are a couple ways to get started with tarot journaling for personal development work. First, start with a 1-card "daily draw". Each morning, shuffle your deck and draw one card. Either look up the meaning, or stare at the card for a minute and go with your first impressions you get as you take in the image.

The authors cite both Jung and Crowley to good effect, using illustrations from Crowley's Thoth deck. Personal development focuses on using the Tarot as a guide to knowing yourself rather than divination or fortune telling. If something's going to happen that you need to know about, you'll have a premonition. You can get much more out of life by focusing on the here and now, than staying stuck in the past or worrying about the...
